Broadmoor Chamber Singers, founded in 1979, is a community chorus based in Natick, Massachusetts. This ensemble provides opportunities for rehearsing, performing, and experiencing diverse choral music. The Broadmoor Chamber Singers endeavor to enrich the Metrowest area culturally through exposure to varied musical works. Members of the group work to foster a sense of community across towns, while sharing a unique musical experience. The chorus sustains itself through public and private fundraising as well as recruitment, publicity, and ticketed events.

Director

June Ambush joined the Broadmoor Chamber Singers in the fall of 2005. Ms. Ambush has served as a music educator and performing artist since 1972. She received her Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Howard University. Ms. Ambush currently teaches music at the John Marshall Elementary School in Dorchester Massachusetts, and conducts the John Marshall Children's Chorus, Faculty Chorus and "Platinum Steppers" Dance Ensemble. She is also the director of the Neighborhood Chorus with Boston Children's Chorus at Villa Victoria in the South End and teaches an undergraduate music course at Pine Manor college in Chestnut Hill. She has been serving as keyboardist for the Christ Temple of Godly Wisdom Ministry in Natick since 1992.

Born and raised in Worcester, Massachusetts, Ms. Ambush was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church and sang in the Saint Cecilia Choir under the direction of Henry Hokans for nine years. This concert is dedicated to Mr. Hokans for teaching the value of musical excellence and performance.
